

World AIDS Day Events in Geneva

Exhibition of Zimbabwean Stone Sculptures

The Ruwa Sculpture Gallery is hosting an exhibition of Zimbabwean stone sculptures under the patronage of Dr Peter Piot, UNAIDS Executive Director, in collaboration with the ILO.

AIDS has become a major threat to this unique form of art as prominent artists succumb to the epidemic. Ruwa Gallery will donate part of the proceeds of sculptures sold in Switzerland to AIDS work in Zimbabwe.

Location: ILO, Colonnade, 4 Route de Morillons, Geneva

Date: Opening: Monday, 29 November 2004, 18:30

Exhibition: 30 November-10 December, except weekends, from 09:30 to 17:00

Remarks by: Susan Leather, Head of Advocacy and Relations, ILO Programme on HIV/AIDS and the World of Work

Mr Achmat Dangor, acclaimed South African author, former head of the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund and Director for Advocacy and Communications at UNAIDS, Geneva

17th WORLD AIDS DAY

Have you heard me today?

Women's Voices, Vulnerabilities and Victories in the face of HIV/AIDS

UNAIDS and 12 other Geneva-based UN agencies, international and local NGOs will commemorate World AIDS Day on Wednesday 1 December. The event will highlight this year's World AIDS Campaign theme - Women, Girls, HIV and AIDS - through dance by Dance Area (école de danse et d'arts), video images and personal testimonials. The Code of Good Practice for NGOs Responding to HIV/AIDS will also be launched at the event. The event will be followed by a reception and an exhibition.

Location: Ecumenical Centre (WCC), 150 route de Ferney, Geneva

Date: Wednesday, 1 December 2004, 16:00-18:30

UNAIDS is the leading advocate for worldwide action against AIDS, bringing together ten United Nations organizations. It leads, strengthens and supports an expanded response to the epidemic that will prevent the spread of HIV, provide care and support for those infected and affected by the disease, reduce the vulnerability of individuals and communities to AIDS, and alleviate the impact of the epidemic.
