

PCB Bureau 2007-2008 Workplan

Output	Key activity	Time frame
1. Increased transparency and improved information flows to PCB members on the follow-up of PCB recommendations and decisions	Systematic follow-up of key PCB-decisions, ensuring continuous information to PCB members on progress of work by: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Information on website; either as explicit information on state of progress, or by way of minutes from the bureau meetings; 2. Secretariat holding Mission briefings, as appropriate, and informal consultations on progress in implementation of PCB recommendations/decisions. 	Ongoing
2. Increased involvement of Member States in the work of the PCB	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Further constituency building to improve the quality and representation of Member States at Board meetings; - Further development of informal networks will be explored to facilitate a better interaction between Programme Coordinating Board meetings; - Secretariat to support regional consultations on key strategic issues. 	When necessary
3. Improved PCB meetings	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Follow-up on the UNAIDS governance reform process; - Further revise and consolidate the PCB drafting group process; - Preparations for the 21st, 22nd and 23rd PCB meetings, including managing the process for the identification of topics to be considered at thematic segments. 	Ongoing
4. Second Independent Evaluation of UNAIDS	In consultation with PCB members, formulate the process, the mechanisms and terms of reference for the second independent evaluation of UNAIDS for submission to the 21st Programme Coordinating Board meeting for approval.	By October 2007
5. Follow-up on the implementation of the GTT Independent Assessment	Coordinate the establishment of a reference group for oversight of the implementation of the Global Task Team recommendations.	By December 2007