SIE: Roles, Responsibilities and Relationships

Dear Stakeholders,

The Oversight Committee is committed to a credible Evaluation process and a quality Report, and have identified a number of critical factors for success. These include the principles of independence, impartiality and transparency, and the active participation of stakeholders.

The attached chart sets out the organization of the Evaluation and relationships between the various components for independent oversight. The accompanying slides summarize our discussions on critical success factors, and the expected roles and responsibilities of the Oversight Committee, the UNAIDS Secretariat and the Cosponsor Liaison Official designated by the PCB.

Sincerely yours,

Catherine Hodgkin
