

Table of Contents

The following 7 fact sheets have been developed to provide health educators, policy makers, and the media with concise information about gender-relevant aspects of the HIV/AIDS pandemic.

Patterns of HIV/AIDS

The impact of HIV/AIDS on the world is highlighted in this fact sheet. Particular attention is paid to how the impact of HIV/AIDS differs among genders and age groups.

HIV Prevention Methods and Gender

This fact sheet outlines the ways in which HIV/AIDS prevention efforts can differ to fit the needs of women, men, girls, and boys.

HIV/AIDS, Gender and Poverty

The impact of poverty is addressed in this fact sheet. Although poverty is universal, it has been shown to impact women and children disproportionately.

HIV/AIDS and Gender-Based Violence

Gender-based violence contributes to the spread of HIV/AIDS throughout the world. This fact sheet outlines the impact of violence on HIV transmission.

The Female Condom

This fact sheet describes the female condom and outlines the role it can play in helping women and girls avoid HIV transmission.

Rural HIV/AIDS

This fact sheet explores how the effects of HIV/AIDS differ between rural and urban areas.

HIV/AIDS and Young People

Young people are the fastest growing segment of the global population infected with HIV. This fact sheet highlights the various social factors that contribute to their growing rate of infection.
